

A truck which crashed into the side of a strip mall and then proceeded to catch the vehicle and the building on fire, is being investigated as an arson in the California city of Compton.

After ramming the truck into the side of the building the driver reportedly fled the scene. According to officials at the scene, the authorities believe this may be connected with previous arson attempts at the location there at the corner of Santa Fe Avenue and Pine Streets.

The fire was extinguished quickly, and there has been no report so far on the extent of the damage.

Due to an anonymous tip called into National Tipster, the residents of Los Angeles can sleep safer tonight after an arrest was made in a rash of home fires that had been set over a two month period.

Information relayed from the informant led investigators to the scene of an arson in progress. Using the information obtained from the anonymous tip caller, the authorities were able to obtain a full confession in relation to the other fires set throughout the community.

Dozens of properties were affected by this criminal with damages estimated to exceed three million dollars.

Any suspicious activity in your community should be reported.